

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

राष्ट्रीय महिला आयोग

December, 2023

In a groundbreaking initiative, NCW and Cyberpeace Foundation organized a crucial consultation at India International Centre on 'Navigating Deepfakes: Collaborative Strategies for Safer Cyberspace.' The session, featuring cyber experts, policymakers, and academia, provided valuable insights. Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma underscored the pressing need to heighten awareness among women regarding deepfake threats and urged law enforcement to expedite cybercrime cases. The ongoing priority is the empowerment of women in the field of technology.

The 9th and 10th batches of Rambhau Mhalgi Prabodhini's 'She is a Changemaker' program engaged Elected Women Representatives from Panchayati Raj Institutions. The valedictory session was attended by Hon'ble Chairperson NCW Smt. Rekha Sharma, Smt. Rekhatrai Mahajan and Dr. Jayant Kulkarni on 13th December, 2023. The valedictory session marked a culmination of empowering sessions, reflecting the collective dedication to fostering leadership among Elected Women Representatives.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The Mahatma Gandhi State Institute of Public Administration in Bhatinda conducted its Third Batch of "She is a Changemaker" program from December 6-8, 2023. NCW takes pride in witnessing the dedicated participation of Women Sarpanch and Panch in this program, empowered by the 'She is a Changemaker' project. Their exemplary leadership and meaningful engagement significantly contribute to driving positive change.

The National Commission for Women participated in Rann Utsav 2023-24 in Kutch, Gujarat, disseminating awareness about significant initiatives such as 'She is a Changemaker' and women empowerment across various sectors. Member of NCW Smt. Mamta Kumari inaugurated the stall, which was followed by an informative Nukkad Natak.

Addressing cybercrimes against women, a National Seminar organized by the National Commission for Women and Kashmir University shed light on the imperative for awareness, digital literacy, and collaborative efforts involving law enforcement and technology sectors. Hon'ble Chairperson of the National Commission for Women highlighted the vulnerability of women to online predators and stresses the importance of a thick-skinned approach. Collaboration among various sectors is crucial to counter cybercrimes against women.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The National Commission for Women organized a comprehensive Prevention of Sexual Harassment Awareness Workshop for over 200 Tripura Government Officials in Dhalai, Tripura. Promoting a safe and respectful work environment is crucial, and such initiatives play a pivotal role in fostering awareness and preventing harassment.

The Hon'ble Chairperson inaugurated Season 2 of Women on Wheels (WOW Drive) in New Delhi. Expanding upon the achievements of Season 1, this season highlights North East India's splendor. Organized under the themes 'Dekho Apna Desh,' 'Amrit Kaal,' and 'Road Safety,' it ensures a fulfilling experience for women drivers. Commencing on Feb 4, 2024, from Guwahati, Assam, participants will traverse 1400km, exploring Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, and Nagaland.

Aligned with the Hon'ble Prime Minister's 'Ek Bharat Sreshtha Bharat' vision, NCW was proud to have hosted a delegation of 7 girls from the Eastern Region in Mumbai, Maharashtra, for our Inter-State Student Exchange Programme. Commencing with an engaging session at the Maharashtra State Women Commission, the girls gained insights into its functioning. Their visit to NMACC was an enriching experience, fostering cultural exchange and learning.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma was invited as a Guest Speaker at the prestigious Women Summit and Awards hosted by Women Icons of India. The event, held at the World Trade Centre in Mumbai, involved insightful discussions, recognition of noteworthy achievements, and a commitment to advancing the crucial cause of women's empowerment.

Navchetana- NCW on Akashvani (India's National Broadcaster)

NCW effectively organized a set of enlightening talk shows on FM Rainbow, Akashvani. Covering essential topics such as legal rights, health, cyber security, and gender sensitization, this engaging series, initiated in October 2023, was aired weekly. The primary objective of these talk shows was to elevate awareness among women about their rights.
